

Being Better Leaders: At the Communication Skills Master Training Session

Pune, Maharashtra | 2nd March, 2024

On Saturday, 2nd March, 2024, a Master Training Session on Communication Skills was conducted for the department and section heads of S.B. Patil Public School in the school auditorium.

The session commenced at 09:30 am with the lamp lighting and Sarasvati Vandana sung by Ms. Sulochana Pawar and Ms. Maithili.

Ms. Swaleha Mujawar was the compere for the event and introduced the two resource persons for the event: Ms. Renu Nargunde, an educationist; and Dr. Sangeeta Gole, an educational advisor. Dr. Bindu Saini then welcomed and felicitated the two guests and resource persons. Accompanying them were Dr. Roopa Shetty and Ms. Jyoti Iyer, principals at Surajba Vidya Mandir, Jogeshwari East.

The six-hour training session thus began with Ms. Nargunde and Dr. Gole addressing the audience on communication effectiveness with the objective to elaborate on the elements of communication; and how as a leader, one needs to use communication to foster better rapport and inclusivity with faculty and staff.

The interactive master training session was an immersive experience for all that challenged the thought processes and skills of all those present there. It included many activities, both individual and group, that helped all those present think anew and out of the box to aid them become better leaders.

We thank our principal, Dr. Bindu Saini; vice principal, Ms. Padmavati Banda; HM, Ms. Shubhangi Kulkarni; and administrative manager, Mr. Manish Dhekale for organising the event. Our gratitude also goes to Ms. Nargunde and Dr. Gole for lending and sharing with us their valuable time and deep knowledge; and Dr. Roopa Shetty and Ms. Jyoti Iyer for being part of the programme. And finally, we thank all those faculty members present for being such a wonderful audience and helping to make the session a memorable and valuable one.
