

The Marathi Bhaasha Diwas Special Assembly

Pune, Maharashtra | 27th February, 2024

Vishnu Vaman Shirwadkar, popularly known by his pen name, Kusumagraj, was a celebrated Marathi author who was honoured with Jnanpith Award in 1987. He made significant contribution in the cultural field of Maharashtra and tireless efforts to make Marathi the language of knowledge.

Kusumagraj, as "Marathi Language Pride Day".

On 21st January, 2013, the Govt. of Maharashtra issued circular to celebrate 27th February, the birth anniversary of

The students of Grade VIII and IX, and Grade I and II too celebrated Marathi Language Day or Marathi Bhaasha Diwas on 27th February, 2024 with the aim to showcase the rich heritage of Maharashtra and to encourage the use of the Marathi language. The celebration included a speech on the day, a play and dance performance that gave tribute to Shivaji Maharaj.

To conclude the ceremony, and being Marathi Bhaasha Diwas, principal, Dr. Bindu Saini spoke on communication and its need in our everyday life. She stressed on why communication needs to be clean with the avoidance of bad and harsh language as this uproots the very essence of communication: the forming of good relationships and bonds.

Grade I and II students celebrated Orange Colour Day and National Science Day as well in their special assembly. A speech was given on the significance of the colour orange; students performed a ramp walk with orange coloured objects.

The relevance and importance of National Science Day was also spoken about; this was followed by a prayer in Marathi, "Hich aamchi prathna"; the history and importance of Marathi Bhaasha Diwas was also talked about; and finally the programme concluded with a dance themed on lok dhara; followed by the Vote of Thank by Ms. Gauri Hundekari.
