Celebrating Christmas

Pune, Maharashtra | 24th December, 2024

Christmas is the season of joy, peace, hope, love, sharing and caring. It is celebrated all over the world annually on 25th December. People celebrate Christmas day to commemorate the birth of Jesus Christ.

It is a time that is spent together with loved ones and friends; and celebrated with the giving of gifts, enjoying delicious food together, and creating memories to be cherished memories.

The pre-primary section of S.B. Patil Public School celebrated Christmas and Red Colour Day very enthusiastically on Tuesday, 24th December, 2024. The tiny tots were dressed in red and white according to the theme and were left amazed when they saw the beautifully decorated classrooms and corridors which were all done by the teachers.

A fun filled activity day was also organised with this celebration. The celebration started with information giving by showing a video on the significance of the festival to imbibe the importance of celebration of the festival in the tender minds.

Children engaged in multiple activities such as drawing, colouring, singing, dancing and theme based artwork such as craft of Santa Claus, earbud dabbing of a snowman, Christmas trees made from ice-cream sticks and many more activities to get better conceptual clarity through fun-filled learning. It was indeed a moment of surprise for the little ones when Santa arrived on the scene, shook hands with them, and gave them chocolates.

Meanwhile, the students of Grades I and II had a special assembly organised by the Red House. The programme started with information about Christmas and why it is celebrated.

Students depicted the story about the birth of Jesus with the theme: "The spirit of giving brings joy." The story taught everyone that Christmas is not just about receiving gifts but also about sharing love and kindness with others.

The event ended with cheerful Christmas greetings as the students danced to the melodious tunes of "Jingle Bells" and "We Wish You Merry Christmas."

The

dazzling entry of Santa Claus added to the joy and excitement of the students. The boundless joy of celebrating the festival was visible on the faces of all the children. It was a joyous and entertaining day for everyone.
