
Honoured for Excellence in Education: Felicitated at IIHM Teachers' Day Awards 2026

Pune, Maharashtra | 1st October, 2026

On 1st October, 2026, the Indian Institute of Hotel Management (IIHM) hosted the prestigious IIHM Teachers' Day Award Ceremony 2026, honouring teachers, educationists and entrepreneurs whose dedication continues to inspire generations and keep the pursuit of knowledge alive despite the challenges of the times.

Representing S.B. Patil Public School, two distinguished educators were recognised for their exemplary contribution to education. Ms. Padmavati Banda, Vice Principal, and Ms. Prajakta Aswale, Teaching Faculty, were each conferred with the IIHM Teacher Par Excellence Award, acknowledging their dedication to nurturing learners and contributing to the school's commitment to educational excellence.

Adding another moment of pride to the occasion, Principal Dr. Bindu Saini received the prestigious IIHM Principal Par Excellence Award in recognition of her visionary leadership and steadfast efforts towards the academic and holistic development of the school community.

These honours are a reflection not only of the individual achievements of the awardees, but also of the values that define S.B. Patil Public School—quality education, innovation, dedicated leadership and the holistic development of every learner.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Bindu Saini, Ms. Padmavati Banda and Ms. Prajakta Aswale on these well-deserved accolades. Their achievements bring immense pride to the entire school community, and we wish them continued success and many more milestones in the years ahead.
