

Remembering a Visionary: Special Assembly on Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak

Pune, Maharashtra | 3rd August, 2026

To honour the remarkable legacy of one of India's greatest freedom fighters, Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak, the students of Grade IV Green House conducted a special morning assembly on 3rd August, 2026 at S.B. Patil Public School. The thoughtfully curated programme celebrated Tilak's invaluable contributions to India's freedom movement and inspired students to embrace the values of patriotism, courage, and national pride.

The assembly commenced with a warm welcome, followed by a spirited Powada performance that filled the atmosphere with enthusiasm and patriotic fervour. A compelling monologue vividly portrayed Lokmanya Tilak's unwavering determination, fearless leadership, and his iconic proclamation, "Swaraj is my birthright, and I shall have it," leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

Adding further depth to the presentation, the students performed a captivating dance accompanied by a video showcasing the significant milestones of Lokmanya Tilak's life. The performance highlighted his pivotal role in India's struggle for independence, his contributions to education and journalism, and his visionary initiative of transforming the public celebration of Ganesh Utsav into a powerful movement that fostered unity and national consciousness.

The assembly concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks, acknowledging the dedicated efforts of the students, teachers, and everyone involved in organising the programme. Through this inspiring presentation, students were encouraged to draw inspiration from Lokmanya Tilak's ideals of courage, leadership, selfless service, and unwavering commitment to the nation, reaffirming the importance of preserving the values that continue to shape India's future.
