Every year, 15th January is marked as Indian Army Day, a solemn occasion dedicated to honouring and revering the brave men and women of the Indian Army. These courageous individuals selflessly dedicate their lives to safeguarding the nation's sovereignty, integrity, and peace.

This year, a special assembly was conducted by the Blue House students of Grade VI, led by Ms. Rucha Dandwate, the Blue House incharge, along with fellow teachers. The assembly took place in the school auditorium, where the students demonstrated an impressive display of patriotism and reverence for the armed forces.

During the assembly, the importance of Indian Army Day was effectively communicated. Students articulated the significance of recognising the unwavering commitment and sacrifices made by our soldiers, who stand as guardians of peace and security. A soul-stirring patriotic song was also presented, further honouring these heroes who serve diligently for the country.

As responsible citizens of India, it is our duty to acknowledge and appreciate the relentless efforts of the Indian Army. These brave souls continuously ensure a safer and stronger future for our nation, often at great personal sacrifice. Let us come together to pay tribute to our armed forces, recognising their dedication to our safety and freedom.
