

A Salute to Our Soldiers: Celebrating Indian Army Day

Pune, Maharashtra | 16th January, 2026

On 16th January, 2026, Indian Army Day was commemorated with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervour during the morning assembly of Grade VI, hosted by Blue House. The atmosphere resonated with pride and valour as students took to the stage to honour the brave men and women of the Indian Army.

The assembly featured inspiring speeches that highlighted the unwavering courage, sacrifices, and selfless service of our soldiers. This was followed by a powerful audio-visual presentation that vividly showcased the Army's dedication to safeguarding the nation and upholding its values.

The programme stood as a heartfelt tribute to our heroes in uniform, leaving the audience deeply moved and filled with respect for those who serve the country with honour.
