
Celebrating 75 Years of Learning:

At the New Saraswati House Publication Inauguration Ceremony and Workshop

Pune, Maharashtra | 29th September, 2025

On the occasion of its 75th anniversary, New Saraswati House Publication organised a special workshop on innovative teaching methodologies under the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, with a focus on the Marathi subject. The event took place on 27th September 2025 at Hotel Kalasagar, Kasarwadi, Pune.

S.B. Patil Public School was honoured to have its principal, Dr. Bindu Saini; vice principal, Ms. Padmavati Banda; along with the Marathi Language faculty: Ms. Jayshree Kale, Ms. Shubhangi Shreekhande, and Ms. Rupali Patil, invited to be a part of this significant academic gathering. Dr. Saini was felicitated at the event by Mr. Shammi Manik, CEO of New Saraswati House Publication, along with Vice President Mr. Virral Upadhyay; and Marketing Head, Ms. Rachna Singh, in recognition of her commitment to academic excellence.

The highlight of the workshop was the launch of Saptarshi — the Marathi book series for students of Grades I to V, authored by Ms. Asavari Hanchate. She led an engaging session, introducing innovative teaching approaches aligned with NEP 2020, while emphasising the importance of mother tongue instruction. Teachers were encouraged to adopt diverse methodologies to foster holistic student development.

The workshop also benefitted from the presence of eminent Marathi scholars and educators, whose insights added depth to the discussions, making the occasion both memorable and enriching for all participants.

S.B. Patil Public School expresses its sincere gratitude for being part of this milestone celebration and looks forward to implementing the valuable perspectives gained at the workshop to further enhance Marathi.
