

In Remembrance, We Stand: Observing Martyrs' Day

Pune, Maharashtra | 30th January, 2026

Martyrs' Day was solemnly observed at the school on 30th January, 2026, with Grade VII students participating in a special assembly organised by Red House to pay homage to Mahatma Gandhi and the countless freedom fighters who laid down their lives for India's independence.

The assembly commenced with a thoughtful address on Mahatma Gandhi's life and ideals, highlighting his unwavering commitment to truth, non-violence, and unity. Students reflected on the relevance of his philosophy in contemporary times and the enduring impact of his teachings on society.

The observance served as a poignant reminder of the immense sacrifices made by India's freedom fighters and the responsibility of the younger generation to uphold the values they stood for. Through reflection and remembrance, the assembly encouraged students to honour this legacy by practising kindness, fostering harmony, and standing firm for what is just and right.

The programme concluded on a note of gratitude and reverence, reinforcing the importance of remembering history while shaping a conscientious and compassionate future.
